As a registered member of Eastern Gauteng Pool Association, I undertake to compete to the best of my ability and to abide by the rules that govern the sport. I am committed to a competitive spirit, free of doping and to uphold the true spirit of sportsmanship out of respect of all the competitors and for the betterment of the sport

“Any player starting a session of trials and not completing that session, shall not be allowed to play in any Trials event for the next 3 (three) years”. A disciplinary hearing will be held for any players found guilty of this.

There will be a “Floating” Referee at all trials, and they will be allowed to make calls on games spectated by themselves.
